Confirmation of receipt of username, password, and pledge to use them properly

I, the undersigned, after introducing and identifying myself personally before a representative of The Feinberg Graduate School – the university arm of The Weizmann Institute of Science (hereafter "the graduate school") – and presenting an accepted form of identification, a copy of which is attached herein, do hereby confirm that:

1. The username and password (hereafter "means of identification") provided to me are intended to allow me quick and convenient access to the designated website of the Feinberg Graduate School and/or of the Weizmann Institute of Science only. At the sole discretion of these entities, the following materials are published on the websites: presentations, lesson plans, recordings, and so forth (together and separately, "the materials").
2. I am aware that the materials are intended solely for independent learning to assist me in my studies. I pledge to make no other use of them, including not publishing, copying, recording, translating, storing in databases, or passing on the materials to others, whether or not in exchange for something. Commercial use of any kind is strictly prohibited.
3. I am aware that all intellectual property rights are reserved by the Feinberg Graduate School and/or the Weizmann Institute of Science and/or lecturers on their behalf, whichever is relevant.
4. In relation to the means of identification, I pledge to use them solely for the purpose for which they were provided to me, as described in article 1 above. I am aware that the means of identification are personal, and I pledge not to pass them on to a third party (even if that party acts for me or on my behalf). The means of identification will be used to login to the designated website mentioned above. I pledge to inform the graduate school and/or the Weizmann Institute of Science of any case in which I suspect unauthorized or prohibited use was made of my means of identification.
5. I am aware that the Feinberg Graduate School and/or the Weizmann Institute of Science will be entitled to block my means of identification for any reason whatsoever.
6. I confirm that I have read the guidelines and procedures of the Feinberg Graduate School, including and mainly those that relate to auditors. I further confirm that their contents are acceptable to me, and I pledge to act according to them.
